CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association, however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more books for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

INTERIOR WITH FIGURES—THE WAR STORY

45⁰⁰

Height, 15½ inches; length, 19 inches

Carl S. Tanfer

THREE men whose discretion is less evident than their enjoyment are observed about a carved table in a tile-floored room with gray walls trimmed with green. One is a soldier, with stein in hand, in brilliant uniform. A huge tankard on the table stands near an older man in gray wig, who seems to have been familiar with it, who displays a map triumphantly before the third man, who has apparently been questioning some tale of the enthusiastic officer, and has referred to books in justification of his opinion.

Height, 3 inches; length, 6 inches

Max Rosenberg

Two domes rise prominently above a city wall whose crenellate top catches the light, while the base is in bluish shadow. In the foreground green bushes grow from yellowish earth.

"This was many times destroyed by fire and rebuilt. As it stands at present it was erected at the cost of the Russian, French and Turkish Governments in 1869. The diameter of the cupola is 78.7 feet. On the western side of the Sepulchre Church the ruins of the Basilica of the Emperor Constantine were discovered some years ago by the Russian archimandrite Antonin, and apparently also the foundation of a city gate, by which possibly our Saviour was led to execution."

THE abode of Father Vassian, from Kamenetz Podolsk, in South Russia, who had once been a miller and lived but to build a good mill for some cloister and die near the Sacred River, who prayed three times a day, giving 300 points each to Christ and the Virgin, 200 to the Angels, Archangels, Prophets and Apostles, and another 200 to all the Saints. "His belief is great and sincere, but the devil evidently tempts him, as he asked me in confidence 'if the Tsar would see his portrait and possibly give him some gratification,' " Verestchagin wrote, adding: "St. John the Baptist probably lived in a similar hole." The "hole" is in a bleak hillside, its entrance sheltered by a rude roof of boards or dried skins supported on crotched limbs brought from no visible trees. Here "passing worshippers lay some trifling gift, such as biscuits or copper money."

FRENCH field laborers are resting in a grove of characteristic Corot trees, those trees of France whose natural poetry he transliterated in pigment. Sunlight burnishes the silvery bark of birches, and feathery foliage partly blocks out a turquoise sky veiled in vaporous white. The ground is grass covered, with patches of dark brown and yellow, and the artist's beloved notes of red appear as the blossoms of woodland flowers. In the centre of the composition is a two-wheeled hay cart, its two gray and white horses tandem, and standing patiently. CAMELS

Height, 40 inches; width, 28 inches

J. Morgan Jones

A LIGHT fawn-colored camel which has been clipped is lying down, across the picture, its neck stretched out and head flat on the ground. Behind it five of the tall and haughty beasts stand, back to the spectator, a dark, reddish-brown against a yellowish sunset sky, while dimly defined beyond them a whole caravan host of camels may be seen, on the outskirts of a city.

Signed at the lower left, TH. FRÈRE.

Owner, Estate of the late WILLIAM C. OASTLER, Esq.

GERMAN: CONTEMPORARY

THE LOVERS

Height, 42½ inches; width, 33¾ inches.

165-

G. M. Tree

A TALL man in buff breeches, a brown coat with vertical stripes, brightly colored waistcoat with flaring revers, and a voluminous stock and jabot, faces the spectator, supporting his love on his left arm. Hat and gloves in hand he looks down upon her, smiling. She, also smiling even more happily, nestles her head against his shoulder and glances at the spectator. She has jet black hair bound in ribbons of yellow, green and brown, and wears a sleeveless gown light and brilliant in hue, with low corsage, carrying on her arm a brilliant yellow and red shawl.

Owner, MRS. E. ARNSTEIN.

No. 273

GAYLORD SANGSTON TRUESDELL.

AMERICAN : 1850—1899

THE SHEPHERD'S LUNCH

330 00 Height, 72 inches; length, 96 inches

John R. Thompson
AN old shepherd in a visor cap and a coat of white fleece is kneeling on the ground amongst his large flock, cutting a loaf of bread, and his dog waits eagerly for his share of the lunch. Most of the sheep are feeding but in the foreground near the shepherd three are lying down, one of them a black sheep. The pasturage is a range of broad, rolling dunes, beside the blue sea.

Signed 'at the lower left, TRUESDELL, 1892.

Owner, Estate of G. A. TRUESDELL, ESQ.
